ALLOWABLE SUBJECT MATTER

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

The potential interference with USPN 5463693 remains relevant to prosecution of the instant application. Applicant is hereby advised that new rules (see 37 CFR 41.202-208, effective 13 September 2004) govern interference proceedings. Applicant's prior request for interference, filed with the application transmittal on 2/4/2002 must be re-submitted under the current rules. A new request for interference meeting all the requirements of 37 CFR 41.202 a must be provided. See MPEP Chapter 2300, October 2005 or later. Further, in particular, Applicants attention is directed to the requirements of 37 CFR 41.202(a) 3 which requires "for each count, provide a claim chart comparing at least one claim of each party corresponding to the count and show why the claims interfere within the meaning of 37 CFR 41.203(a). This should include a discussion of the differences between Applicant's disclosed and claimed "said spacer further having a microphone extending therefrom" where the microphone is extending inside the spacer and the patented "said spacer further having a microphone extending therefrom" where the microphone is extending outside the spacer for critical advantages. Furthermore, Applicant should address the differences between Figures 4 and 5 of the patented invention and Figure 3 of Applicant's invention. The reasoning why Applicant believes his invention to be the same invention as that found in the allegedly conflicting patent need to be clearly indicated on the record. Additionally note the definitions contained in
